

Renee Hardy
173 Greenfield Dr.
St. Johns, FL 32259
(317) 698-9421

reenehardy77@hotmail.com

OBJECTIVE

To obtain a position as a Nurse Educator

EDUCATION

Grand Canyon University—MSN, Nursing Education, June, 2018

Nurse Educator Practicum—150 hours, January-April 20 18

Indiana State University—BSN, December, 2008

Senior Capstone Class—120 hrs in Labor and Delivery

Community Health Nursing—90 hrs at Maternal Child Health Clinic

Ivy Tech Community College--TC for LPN, July, 2006

Butler University--BLA in Spanish and Intl Studies, May, 1999

Universidad de Salamanca, Salamanca, Spain--6 mos Study Abroad

Universidad de Costa Rica, San Pedro, Costa Rica--6 mos Study Abroad

WORK EXPERIENCE

St. Vincent's Hospital-Southside

Jacksonville, FL September, 2019 – Present

Nurse Educator

- Work with managers to assess learning needs of RNs and PCTs for the ICU, Progressive Care, Cath lab, and Med/Surg units
- Create, implement, and evaluate educational plans and develop measurements to evaluate if learning goals have been met
- Resource for staff in clinical practice and professional development
- Actively participate in the new hire orientation and onboarding process
- Experience with use of simulation mannequins for training purposes

St. Vincent's Riverside - Telemetry Unit

Jacksonville, FL September, 2018-2019

Registered Nurse

- Telemetry unit- able to interpret EKG rhythms
- Managed appropriate cardiac drips
- Delivery the best patient care possible
- Work with physicians to follow orders and plans of care
- Collaborate with ancillary staff for best patient outcomes
- Delegate appropriate tasks to PCTs

CNM- Nurse Educator Practicum-150 hrs
Albuquerque, NM- January 19-April 6, 2018

Grad Student

Assisted the Nurse Faculty Instructor at CNM of a fundamentals of nursing class for first year ASN nursing students. Helped create three quizzes and three learning games in class which included a Jeopardy game. Conducted three lectures throughout the course via powerpoint presentations reviewing the following subjects: Elimination, Mobility, and Stress management. Assisted the nurse instructor with students applying hands-on learning in the lab and the hospital clinical setting. Also graded student care plans and offered guidance throughout the entire Program.

APS – Valley High School Nurse
Albuquerque, NM – October 31, 2013 to Present

Registered Nurse

- Manage chronic health conditions such as diabetes, asthma, seizures, and mental health concerns
- Provide preventive services and flu shot clinics
- Main goal is to keep students in school whenever possible in order to achieve academic success
- Immunizations
- Early identification of health problems and interventions
- Work closely with parents, doctors, counselors, teachers, and social workers to foster exceptional health and educational success

Comfort Keepers - Home Health
Albuquerque, NM – 2015-2018

Registered Nurse

- Scheduled visits to see patients in their homes
- Followed doctors' orders
- Diabetes management, wound care, dressing changes, medication management

UNM Hospital- Float Nurse ICU
Albuquerque, NM October, 2012 – December, 2013

Registered Nurse

- Burn unit
- Trauma Unit
- Cardiac Unit
- Medical Unit

IU Health-Methodist Hospital - CVCC ICU

Indianapolis, IN – May, 2011 to October, 2012

Registered Nurse

- Receive patients directly from various surgeries including CABGs, aneurysm repairs, peripheral vascular, lung and heart transplants, etc.
- Prepare patients for surgery
- Monitor arterial lines, central venous lines, swan-ganz catheters
- Experience in a teaching hospital
- Work closely with other nurses as a team to make certain proper care and patient safety is delivered
- Deliver total patient care, including toileting, bathing and grooming
- Offer clear communication to physicians, patients, and family members to ensure understanding of patient care

St. Catherine Hospital- IMCU

East Chicago, IN—May, 2009 to April, 2011

Registered Nurse

- Assess patient status
- Communicate with physicians of clinical changes
- Implement plan of care for patients
- Monitor cardiac rhythms via telemetry leads/strips
- Educate patients/families on health care needs, tests/procedures, etc
- Admit and discharge patients in an efficient and timely manner
- Communicate and collaborate with ancillary staff regarding patient care
- Delegate suitable tasks to Patient Care Techs
- Relate well with people from various cultural backgrounds

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS/SKILLS

Licensed Registered Nurse New Mexico, Florida

Compact License for Registered Nurse (application pending)

CPR- current

ACLS - current

Certified to give and read PPD tests

Ability to interpret and teach various cardiac rhythms via telemetry monitoring/EKG

Proficient oral and written Spanish communication skills

Microsoft Office

Google Chrome

ANA and FNA member