

Speakers Bio:

Anand Iyer, MD
Assistant Professor
Center for Palliative & Supportive Care
Department of Medicine

alyer@uabmc.edu

Dr. Iyer is a pulmonary-critical care physician, geriatrics-palliative care researcher, and Assistant Professor in the Division of Pulmonary, Allergy, and Critical Care Medicine and the School of Nursing at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB). He is UAB's first-ever recipient of a prestigious Paul B. Beeson Emerging Leaders Career Development Award in Aging, a K76 from the National Institute on Aging of the NIH. As a Beeson Scholar, he studies the integration of geriatrics and palliative care for people living with serious respiratory illness and their families. He also founded @pallipulm on Twitter to build an international community to unite the fields of palliative care and pulmonary-critical care. Today, his presentation is entitled, "Palliative Care in Serious Respiratory Illness"

Education And Training

- University of Alabama at Birmingham Pulmonary, Allergy, and Critical Care Medicine
- University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Public Health
- University of Alabama at Birmingham Tinsley Harrison Internal Medicine Residency Program, Residency
- University of Alabama at Birmingham Health Services, Outcomes, and Effectiveness Research Training Program, Postdoctoral Fellowship
- Doctor of Medicine, University of Alabama at Birmingham 2011
- Bachelor of Science or Mathematics in Biology / Biological Sciences, University of Alabama at Birmingham 2007