Presentation purpose:

Bacteremia due to gram-negative pathogens presents a high risk of morbidity and mortality. Advances in care have emerged in the literature in the recent years which pose an opportunity to standardize an optimized bundle for management. This educational session will familiarize the learner with these updated best practices and prepare them to provide evidence-based care to these patients.

Learning objectives:

- Differentiate complicated from uncomplicated bacteremia
- Select evidence-based treatment durations
- Determine when to order follow-up blood cultures
- Identify opportunities for antimicrobial dose optimization and conversion from intravenous to oral therapy

Target audience:

This activity is designed for the interdisciplinary audience including the following: Physician, Pharmacist

Conflict of Interest:

In accordance with the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support, it is the policy of Ascension to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all CE/CME activities. Full disclosure of conflicts and conflict resolution will be made in writing via handout materials or syllabus.
