Preparing Stroke Patients for Success in the Real World

WHEN: October 28, 2022 — 11:00 AM CT (12:00 PM ET)

Registration:

Register in myLearning by searching "Neuro Stroke Webinar: Preparing Stroke Patients for Success in the Real World" (Course Code: ASC CRX NS PSP 2022)
A link to the webinar will be emailed to registered participants.

Presentation purpose:

This lecture was created in order to review best practice as it relates to stroke education and follow-up care for stroke survivors and their families in a comprehensive yet individualized manner. Nurses and providers alike should take the whole patient into consideration and tailor discharge education and follow up to the needs each unique patient requires. Together we can improve the lives of stroke patients and prepare them for success in the real world.

Learning objectives:

- Review best practices for discharge education and discharge follow-up protocols for the stroke patient
- Identify techniques that health care providers can utilize to empower stroke patients/families to engage in self management strategies
- Improve the transition from acute care to the community setting for stroke patients, families, & providers
- Identify key resources to consider in the discharge and follow-up process
